Applicant must also follow requirements of Policy 3(A) if he or she has not been actively practicing Pharmacy for the past 4 years or longer.

Board Policy #4

In the November 17-18, 1998 Board Meeting, the Georgia State Board of Pharmacy voted to adopt the following as Board Policy. In the February 12, 2008 Board Meeting, the Board revisited this Policy and amended as needed.

Guidelines for Reinstatement of Pharmacists' Licenses that have been Administratively Lapsed for Failure to Renew.

It is the Board's Policy that licenses that have been Administratively Lapsed due to nonrenewal shall be reinstated to include the following stipulations:

1. Pay a $250.00 reinstatement fee, plus pay $120.00 renewal fee for each licensing renewal period that the pharmacist did not renew his/her license.
2. Complete and submit proof of 30 Hours of Pharmaceutical Continuing Education.
3. Automatic Inclusion in the continuing education audit pool in the following biennium.
4. Board may request to meet with licensee prior to license being renewed.
5. Must also follow requirements in Policy 3(A) if applicant has not been actively practicing pharmacy for the past four (4) years or longer.

Review listing of administratively approved Pharmacists' reinstatement applications dated 2/2007-1/2008: Mr. Tatum made a motion to approve the administratively Pharmacists' applications. Mr. Prather seconded the motion and it carried unanimously. See attachment.

Items tabled from previous meetings:

Information submitted by Susanne Ziegler, RPH015108: Ms. Ziegler requests to withdraw her reinstatement application.
